

EVERYWHERE'S NEWS IN TABLOID FORM

Glasgow, Scotland.—Suffragettes attempted to blow up Belmont church, exploding three bombs. Only slight damage.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—20,000 coal miners idle in Washington, Pa., region. Refuse to work until wage scale has been settled.

St. Louis.—Jeu Hon Yee refused to allow his wife, Ngo Quong Ho, to attend a missionary tea. She killed him with a hatchet.

Lansing, Kan.—Chancellor Strong of University of Kansas has proposed to establish correspondence school in penitentiary so convicts can secure college education during spare time.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Richard Ryer, 35, shot and killed by policeman. Fifth man killed by police in two weeks. Ryer had entered house where he was formerly employed.

Kansas City.—Dr. S. J. Crumbine, secretary state board of health, says in next century 150 years will just be "ripe old age." Scientific attacks on disease will result in lengthening life.

St. Louis.—Baroness Rose Posse, president gymnastic school in Boston, told clubwomen "debutante slouch" reminded her of chocolate eclairs.

Toledo, O.—Passengers who decline to pay more than three cents' fare still allowed to ride free by car company. Suit will be filed to restrain company from charging more than three cents.

Cleveland.—Fifty mothers filed applications for mother's pension under new state law. 700 applications expected by next week.

St. Joseph, Mich.—Accused of murdering her week-old child and hiding the body at Benton Harbor race track, Annetta Potter, 30, divorcee, arrested.

Edinburg.—X-rays disclosed pocket knife in stomach of girl, 14. Had swallowed it while using it as toothpick. Removed.

Vincennes, Ind.—Max, 50-pound bulldog, separated from his master, who was doing jury service, suicided by leaping from window of courthouse.

New York.—Three workmen killed and one fatally injured by collapse of retaining wall of moving picture theater in course of construction.

Lafayette, Ind.—Mabel Rogers, Shoals, Ind., co-ed here, filed suit against seven Purdue girls asking damages of $7,000 for alleged hazing.

Washington.—John Lind, President Wilson's special representative to Mexico, will return to U. S. at once.

Centralia, Ill.—Alleging Centralia Traction Co. had increased working hours from 10 to 14 hours and decreased wages, employees of west side street car line went on strike.

Racine, Wis.—John Raden, frugal Pole who saved $600 in 8 years, fleeced out of it by one of his countrymen in confidence game.

New Orleans.—Reported that Louis Terrazas, Jr., millionaire of Chihuahua, held for ransom by Gen. Villa and at one time threatened with death by rebel leader, escaped.

Wheeling, W. Va.—John Lobmiller, 56, inventor and official of Ohio Valley Lithographing Co., suicided. Despondency.

Denver.—"Sterilize Beau Brummels of the boulevard who are morally and physically unfit to marry," advised Bishop C. F. Anderson. Chicago, at meeting here.

New Orleans.—W. L. Baldwin, whose papers indicate that he is a salesman for the Plow Candy Co., St. Louis, suicided. Had been arrested for forgery.

San Francisco.—Man on board steamer Vontura from Australia arrested on charge of having cracked strong-box of vessel and taken $60,000 during voyage.

Cleveland.—Ohio moving picture censorship law, providing elimination of murders, crime and many other